

April 21st 2010,
10am-12.45pm.
Turnberrie's, Thornbury.

Empowering the 'hard to reach & hear' communities

Speaker: Martin Gregg on the Reaching Out:Linking In (RO:LI) project

Helping rural Communities access services

Speakers: Dick Whittington, Community Action & Terry Hopkins, Community Transport

Break-out workshops – your chance to discuss the challenges & help create solutions for reaching 'hard to hear' groups, with a specific focus on rural communities

The Compact Implementation Plan

Enhancing the relationship between local government and the voluntary & community sector.

Speakers.

Helen Black, CVS South Gloucestershire: The rights and responsibilities of voluntary sector.
Usha Kumar, South Gloucestershire Council. The local government perspective.

Workshop – your chance to input ideas for aiding the implementation of the Compact

Location. Turnberries – the Thornbury Community Building Trust.
Bath Road, Thornbury, BS35 2BB. Free parking at Rock Street Carpark.

Registration from 9.30am (tea/coffee/perusing displays). Lunch included in program

Book your place by contacting

Clare Adamson, Voluntary Voices Coordinator
tel. 01454 865212 or email. clare.adamson@cvs-sg.org.uk

(Please tell me at this time whether you have any special dietary or other requirements)

Please note. If you do book to come, we ask that you give at least 24 hours notice if you need to cancel your place. This is part of a drive towards sustainability i.e. reducing printing, paper use, food waste & energy.

If you have any problems getting to the event please let me know.

"Be the change you want to see in the world" Mahatma Gandhi

